

Meet The Author
Christina Asquith

“...The most intimate and moving portrait I have read of the early American disaster in Iraq.”

-Mark Bowden,
author of “Black Hawk Down”

SISTERS IN WAR

A Story of Love, Family, and Survival in the New Iraq

Thursday, January 28
Alumni Center @ 2:30 PM
Refreshments will be served

Northeastern University
University Libraries

Sponsored by the Northeastern University Women's Studies Program, the Northeastern University International Affairs Program, and Northeastern University Libraries.