

The Northeastern Department of Physics faculty, staff, and students are invited to a lecture that will honor Professor Alan H. Cromer, Ph.D

On the occasion of the publication of Janet M. Cromer's memoir, Professor Cromer Learns to Read: A Couple's New Life after Brain Injury, Janet will present the following lecture:

Brain Injury as a Chronic Disease: The Impact on Survivors and Caregivers

Date:

Monday, March 15th

Time:

5:00pm – 6:30pm

Location:

NU Graduate School of Speech Language Pathology
West Village G, Room 108

Janet will be signing copies of Professor Cromer Learns to Read: A Couple's New Life after Brain Injury. Janet M. Cromer, RN, MA, LMHC is a psychiatric RN, licensed psychotherapist, educator, and award-winning medical writer.